

EAS Batteries GmbH - fact sheet

History

1996: Foundation of GAIA Akkumulatorenwerke GmbH in Nordhausen

2011: Foundation of the subsidiary EAS Germany GmbH by GAIA and HAWKER

2017: Merger GAIA and EAS Germany to form EAS Batteries GmbH as part of the Monbat Group

Locations

Head office and production: Nordhausen (Thuringia, Germany)

Sales office: Hamburg (Germany)

Company size

Number of employees: 40

Cell production capacity: up to 10 MWh/year

Industries / Markets

Maritime industry

Space & Aerospace

Construction

Defense

Non Road Mobile Machines (NRMM)

stationary power

Battery Assemblers

Products and services

Flexible standard product: EASy Marine[®], modular battery concept

Individual solutions: Development and implementation of tailor-made, innovative high-power and high-energy battery systems based on lithium-ion cells